

Study in Hungary

Hungarian higher education

Hungarian higher education has represented academic excellence for more than 600 years. The first university in Hungary was founded in 1367 in Pécs, located in the southern region of Hungary. Today there are 67 higher education institutions in Hungary ranging from top research universities to minor colleges. These universities and colleges are financed either by the state, private organizations or a church.

Main reasons to study in Hungary:

- Hungary offers affordable tuition fees (from 600 EUR per semester) and living costs in European Union and Schengen area;
- Number of Nobel Prize Winners and scientific inventors got their education here;
- Easier admission procedure and fewer documents for getting acceptance compared to many other EU member countries;
- Hungary offers different types of scholarships for foreigners;
- Lots of education programs are offered in English and German languages;
- Hungarian embassies issue education visas easier than other European Union and Schengen Member States;
- Residence permit issued in Hungary for foreign students allows them to travel to other Schengen countries without any visa;
- Number of low-cost flights connect Hungarian cities to other countries and popular travel destinations;
- Employment opportunities in European Union during education years and after graduation, etc.
