

HUNGARIAN HIGHER EDUCATION

Hungarian higher education has represented academic excellence for more than 600 years. The first university in Hungary was located in the southern region of Hungary. Today there are 67 higher education institutions in Hungary ranging from top research universities to minor colleges. These universities and colleges are financed either by the state, private organizations or a church.

MAIN REASONS TO STUDY IN HUNGARY:

- Hungary offers affordable tuition fees (from 600 EUR per term) and low living costs in the European Union and the Schengen area
- Several Nobel Prize Winners and scientific inventors got their education in Hungary
- Easier admission procedure and fewer documents required for acceptance than in many other EU member countries
- Hungary offers various scholarships for foreigners
- Lots of education programs offered in English and German
- Hungarian embassies issue student visas easier than other European Union and Schengen member states
- The residence permit issued in Hungary for foreign students allows them to travel to other Schengen countries without a visa
- Many low-cost flights connect Hungarian cities with other countries including popular travel destinations
- Employment opportunities in the European Union available already during the education program and after graduation
